What User likes about Rowers on the River Restaurant and Function Centre: Amazing garlic bread & even more amazing sticky date pudding perfect portion size for me as well anymore & I would have been sick. Shame the mains were quite bland they really need add something to lift the pastas? Maybe a simple Gremolata? Service was very organised giving us time in between courses but not to much time. It's been almost 20 years since I last had cause to dine in Bundaberg and back then this was the place I was brought to then. The staff were lovely, helpful, enthusiastic (although perhaps not as knowledgeable about the menu as you might hope). The menu offers a good range of options (including children's meals). The servings were generous in size. All this contained in a river front ve... read more. In beautiful weather you can even be served in the outdoor area. Are you looking for confectionery?
