We have travelled regularly to Japan and are always overwhelmed with the deliciously authentic food that is served time after time when we visit Nom. This is supported by the consistent patronage of Japanese nationals living in Sydney who choose to frequent this Gem of a restaurant. It's difficult to get in here, so I shouldn't encourage you, but I'd be rude not to call out how amazing this place is...!! Everything is... read more. What User

doesn't like about Nom:

Extremely arrogant, I just found this restaurant on google map and entered, after noticing that I did not make a reservation, his act was like I was guilty because of it and was banned from entering the restaurant. I am very curious about whether I was served by them or I was serving them. Really ridiculous... read more. In nice weather you can even eat in the outdoor area. At Nom from Darlinghurst you can try delicious vegetarian courses, in which no animal meat or fish was processed, and healthy Japanese dishes are being made with lots of fresh vegetables, fish and meat. The Asian fusion cuisine is also an important part of Nom. Anyone who finds the normal and generally known menus too boring should approach with a willingness to experiment and try some unexpected combination of ingredients consume, On the menu there are also several Asian meals.
