This bistro is something of a surprise package. I ventured to the specials board for a chilli, prawn and cheese trio pizza, and can honestly say it was one of the best pizzas I've ever had. The skinny bloke who took my order and waited my table was friendly and helpful. Dining area was a bit cramped, but tidy and well presented. Could do with a few different tap beers in the bistro. Overall would recommend. read more. What User doesn't like about The Royal Inn:

Same old menu, same old staff, average food, average service. Why pay to have someone's bum on your table while they are lined up to order, then an hour wait to get your entree only to have it tipped in your lap by the cook. Then wrong mains brought out. Poor waitress probably first shift alone trying to take orders, serve at the bar & bring out the meals nearly in tears. Expect a little better even from a bistro that tak... read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities. Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and be served. If you're looking for more thrill than just eating and drinking, you'll find it in this sports bar. Enjoy small snacks and menus and watch live football, tennis or Formula 1 games, and you can look forward to the fine typical seafood cuisine. Also worth mentioning at this place are the dishes from Australia, You shouldn't miss the opportunity to try the delicate pizza, baked fresh in an original manner.
