We were the only ones in the Restaurant so we had private dining experience! Food was a little pricey for what we got but the food was lovely and light - not heavy like you can sometimes have with Chinese. Food came out quickly and our waitress was attentive but not crowding us either (which could have been the case seeing we were all she had!). read more. What User doesn't like about Robe Chinese Restaurant:

The food was of a reasonable standard, although the peas seemed stale and the green curry tasted somewhat like detergent. The servings were generous for their price, although this did not make up for the lack of atmosphere in the dining area. It seemed very quiet as we walked in and the waitress did not seem to realise that we were there. After eventually receiving a table, we were greeted with a tacky plastic table... read more. In pleasant weather you can even be served in the outdoor area, And into the accessible spaces also come guests with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. In Robe Chinese Restaurant in ROBE, they prepare delicious pizza using a time-honored method, served fresh, Furthermore, the guests love the creative combination of different menus with new and partially experimental products - a good example of successful Asian Fusion. meals are prepared authentically in the Asian style, You can take a break at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
