I've stayed away from this place for a long time because previous visits were not so satisfying. However, a few weeks ago, upon the insistence of my husband, we came in for lunch, and we learned that it's already under new management and the food were all wonderful. We ordered crispy beef, scallops with veggies, bean curd and chicken and corn soup. We all loved it so much, everything seems fresh and very tasty. I can... read more. What

User doesn't like about Ming Court:

Bring back the homemade spring rolls !This used to me a local institution for a lot of people around Jingili and surrounding suburbs but unfortunately like all good things the change of management has let our beloved Ming count in history Don't get me wrong the food is still great it just doesn't have the same touch it used to have read more. When the weather conditions is pleasant you can also eat outside, And into the accessible spaces also come clientele with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. For those who enjoy the pleasure of numerous tasty.

Roti or even the seemingly endless variations of Ayam for meals, Ming Court in JINGILI is the place to be, Don't miss the chance to have the crispy and crunchy pizza, prepared straight out from the oven in an original way. Also, international meals are a part of the cuisine of the Ming Court, Besides, the inventive blend of different menus with new and partially adventurous products is appreciated by the customers - a good case of Asian Fusion.
