What User likes about East Taste: A popular and busy restaurant close to the Central Market. The prices were reasonable, the food delicious and friendly attentive staff. We tried a variety of things from the menu and really liked the shallot cakes. The pork belly special with spinach was a highlight a great fusion of flavours. By 6.30pm the restaurant was packed so would suggest booking. Great family environment. read more. What User doesn't like about East Taste: Visited East Taste over the weekend with friends. The service was excellent and the food was tasty for the price. The thing that East Taste is lacking is ambiance. If you want a restaurant where you can sit back and relax with a drink after dinner then this may not be for you. However, if you're looking for a quick, tasty dish on a budget then look no further. read more. The diner and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. If you want to spoil your palate with a bit of culinary flair, this is the place to be: The original Asian fusion cuisine of the East Taste from Adelaide - a delicious mix of traditional and the unexpected, there are also tasty vegetarian recipes on the menu.
