It was up-to-standard Asian cuisine. The fried rice and fried noodles were traditional Chinese style and there were many western customers other than Chinese. The young lady staff was very polite and cheerful. We went for dinners for 2 out of 3 nights stay in Sandy Bay. read more. What Myles Stracke doesn't like about Touch of Asia:

command the take away and look bad. the bark is really hard to eat and too sweet. too much rice and hard to eat and do not want to try again and not order to take away. read more. When the weather is pleasant you can also eat outside. If you're in a rush, you can get delicious Fast-Food dishes to your taste from Touch of Asia in Hobart, freshly prepared for you in short time, On the menu there are also several Asian menus. The Asian fusion cuisine is likewise an important part of Touch of Asia. Anyone who finds the usual and generally known meals too boring should approach with a willingness to experiment and try some exciting combination of ingredients enjoy, Many visitors find it particularly great that they can try the versatile, tasty Chinese cuisine.
