A great lunch visit for our group of 40 from our Probus club. Had some misgivings about how they would handle such a large group (a la carte). No need to have worried as we arranged with management to restrict the menu to a la carte lunchtime menu. Worked a treat as there was seamless service and the waiting staff couldn't have been more helpful. Drinks ordered and paid for at the bar saved sorting out the "table" bi... read more. What User doesn't like about Russo Estate:

Worst service ever. Ran out of steak no seafood as the menu suggests. Beautiful place badly managed .slack staff. Word of mouth is the best advertising the drunk waiter said....guess what word of mouth can hurt your business won't be back and will spread the word.over priced and food was cold and bad he said to complain to the guy behind the bar.dont bother.mcdonalds can do better..... Russo Estate from Hillside is a good option for a bar if you want to have a drink after work and hang out with friends, and you can look forward to typical scrumptious French cuisine. Also, they serve you tasty seafood menus, Additionally, they offer you typical Australian meals with products like bush tomatoes and finger limes.
