Adelaide has some great Banh Mi spots and this place is right up there. I think the pick of the menu is their combination roll of roast pork, chicken and various cold meats. It's plump and deliciously full set off by crunchy marinated carrot & sliced cucumber. The nature of the beautiful baguettes however means they don't retain their freshness well so get there before 1pm to get them at their best. read more. If you crave for desserts, Cha Phu Xuong with its fine desserts can surely make an end of it, You can also look forward to the typical scrumptious French cuisine. You have the option to, after the meal (or during it), also relax at the bar with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, Likewise, the guests of the establishment prefer the extensive selection of differing coffee and tea specialities that the establishment provides.
