This restaurant is right on the highway and don't miss an opportunity to stop if you want to taste traditional Virudhunagar cuisine. Good basement parking and nice ambience adds to the splendor but the highlight is the food. Poricha Parotta at dinner and biriyani during lunch time is what I usually go for. Kudal, Nethili fry and thalakari are good. So are the juices from the parlor, the Sharjah milk shake is gonna sh... read more. What User doesn't like about Burma Kadai:

We went there for the poricha parotta. It was not tasty. We had better poricha parotta in Singapore. Probably it's because of the modernization in the new location. The food was expensive and below average. The fish fry was definitely a must try. read more. In pleasant weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area. If you're in a rush, you can get fine Fast-Food menus just the way you like it from Burma Kadai in Virudhunagar, freshly prepared for you in few minutes, and you can look forward to the fine traditional seafood cuisine. meals are prepared typically in the Asian style, Indulge in the impressive outlook of the delicious decorations of the dishes and also enjoy a excellent outlook of some of the regional places.
