Lovely place to eat and the food is really good. You really need to book to be sure of a table if you want to go here. I was a visitor to the town and both Saturday mornings went for brunch. Luckily I booked the second time as I would not have got in otherwise. read more. What User doesn't like about The Chapel:
Having read about this place in The Australian booked to take a friend there for her birthday lunch which I noted in the reservation. Staff made no mention of it, so it begs the question of why that field is in the booking field. We both had the shark and chips the batter on both fish portions wasn't crisp. Then our plates were left for way too long (they were still there when I came back from feeding the meter in an... read more.
