What Collin Aisu doesn't like about Adelaide Pho:

Heard great things about here but no. Overpriced for what it was, simple flavours, the pho really isn't that great.

The one we make at home tastes similar and we consider ours a failure! It is sooo busy all the time and we cannot figure out why. The staff aren't exactly friendly, but not rude either. Won't return ever. But hey ho, it was edible. read more. The restaurant offers complimentary WiFi for its guests, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and be served. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for visitors with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. At Adelaide Pho from Adelaide it's possible to try delicious vegetarian meals, that were made without any animal meat or fish, Furthermore, the guests love the creative combination of different meals with new and partially experimental ingredients - a good example of successful Asian Fusion. It's precisely the freshness and lightness together with the original Vietnamese spices that not only brings tasty dishes to the plate, but also puts the customers into a pleasant holiday feeling for a short time, It's possible to chill out at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
