The whole place has a lovely feel with big comfy chairs..a lovely fish tank and unusual light fittings. It was busy but staff couldn't have done enough for us and had a good sense of humour. The food was lovely..we ordered from the Malaysian menu. Service wasn't slow either. Highly recommend. read more. What User doesn't like about Dragon Palace Tamworth:

A perfectly reasonable regional Australian-Chinese meal. The serves were very generous, and the fried rice could have been a meal for all 3 of us so we ended up with probably double what we needed. I found the decor and vibe to be a bit overdone, I personally prefer a more casual place, but it was cosy and the staff were friendly. Service: Dine in read more. When the weather is nice you can also be served outside, And into the accessible spaces also come clientele with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. Look forward to the diverse, tasty Mexican cuisine, traditionally prepared with corn, beans and chilies (hot peppers), The dishes are usually prepared for you in the shortest time and fresh. Not to forget, Dragon Palace Tamworth serves of course also Malaysian national dishes like Roti, Naan and of course also a large assortment of rice dishes, You can also unwind at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
