Went to South Leagues club in Merewether on Friday lunch time. Hadn't been there for over 20 years but the food was wonderful. They have food from different cultures although their main fare is Chinese. Unlike most Chinese meals, there was not a low meat to vegetable ratio. We had lamb and cashews and combination chow mien. There was more lamb and cashews than vegetables and lamb was so tender. It was really lovely.... read more. What User doesn't like about Seasons Bistro South Leagues Club:

Mainly a Chinese restaurant, with western meals as well. I ordered the steak, u add all your own vegetables from the Bain Marie. The steak was large covered the whole plate, but it was very thin, wasn't very good as it was fatty and very chewy, couldn't eat it all. I in no rush to return. read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities. If you want to spoil your palate with a bit of culinary flair, this is the place to be: The imaginative Asian fusion cuisine of the Seasons Bistro South Leagues Club from MEREWETHER - a delicious mix of the familiar and the unexpected, Many visitors are particularly impressed by the versatile, fine Chinese cuisine. Also worth mentioning at this restaurant are the dishes from Australia, On the menu there are also several Asian menus.
