After spending time at local attractions we stopped for lunch at The Monkey Tree. What a great place to eat. An extensive menu should allow everyone to find something to enjoy. The kids meal was quite large so would suit older kids. I had the eggs Benedict with bacon which was excellent. The locally brewed beer was also worth a try. Recommend this restaurant. Went for dinner one evening and the menu was a bit limited for a vegetarian so I just had potato waffles with a dip. I don't like sour cream but was told that it came with sour cream and sweet chilli, assuming that they would come separate they actually came mixed together. The staff were very good and got me a sweet chilli on its own. My husband enjoyed his meal but it was all very ordinary. The service and friendli... read more.
