What User likes about Cucina de Manila: I have tried few Filipino restaurants in Australia and even when in the Philippines and nothing could match up to this restaurant especially their Crispy Pata. The best. Taste like home cooking at its best. This place was recommended to me by a friend and we had to drive all the way from the city to Rooty Hill where the restaurant is located and it was well worth it. Very popular among local people. The place was ful... read more. What User doesn't like about Cucina de Manila:

Place looked inviting and having being to the Phillipines and enjoying some good thought to try it. Staff are great but food was just average. I did like the sisig, but the other dishes had some tough dry bits of meat. Beef flavour was nice bit pork was way too sweet. Maybe better on weekend nights when it seems they do more dishes.
