With my wife, daughter-in-law and Granddaughter we sort out a lunch spot that had views of the bay, winter lunch and understood under 2's can be demanding. All our expectations were met with great food, great service and a pleasant outlook outside but remarkably warm with the glass wind shields protecting us. read more. What Hunter Wunsch doesn't like about The Geelong Boat House:

Expensive and low quality. You would think that being right on the Geelong coast, that they would use fresh, local fish. Instead the calamari rings were those frozen, reconstructed fish type. The fish was poorly cooked, chips were OK, salad was dirty and the layout is poor. Very sub-par, then you realise this is meant to be the best fish and chips in Geelong... read more. In nice weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. Various flavorful seafood courses are served by the The Geelong Boat House from Geelong, Additionally, they offer you typical Australian meals with products like bush tomatoes and finger limes. After the meal (or during it), you have the opportunity to still relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, Likewise, the guests of the restaurant prefer the comprehensive variety of various coffee and tea specialities that the establishment provides.
