I came here with my partner and my friends on my first night out in Brisbane. We are country fans and have been told this place goes off on Fri and Sat nights. We got there when there were a few people there and by the next hour the place was packed! We enjoyed watching people on the bucking bull, my friend got on and loved it! The Tony Q band that was playing was amazing!! He got the whole crowd going and he has a r... read more. What User doesn't like about Johnny Ringo's:

We had a business Christmas event - private function. The bar staff were nice, over loaded but polite. At the end the owner was extremely rude and aggressive towards a female musician. It was real poor on his behalf - we all left disappointed. Yet there were really drunk and vomiting people who he was ok with. Pretty disgusting if you consider responsible service of alcohol. Maybe sober people aren't as profitable as... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in nice weather.
