great place to hang with friends. we went on a saturday afternoon and it was quite busy. we saw you can make reservations but we ended up just sharing a table with other patrons. yummy food and beer. it does get quite loud in their so if you're after an intimate conversation it's probably not the place. read more. What Beryl Mann doesn't like about Newstead Brewing Milton:

As me and all the other reviewers will tell you. It's a place for manly men to eat, drink, watch footy, grunt, banter, elaborate past sporting achievements, rubber neck girls walking by. So if you're into all that, which I personally am, I would suggest a tippie at this pub. Not to mention the great range of beers, that don't taste like that rubbish home brew that your mate Damien made in high school. It's got goo... read more.
