Tucked away at the back, the bistro serves good quality pub meals. Not sure about one of the other reviewers comments about the best Parma in Australia, I felt it was average. Huge in size, but fairly normal to the taste buds. The garlic bread/cobb loaf was a highlight and my wife was impressed with the open lamb souvlaki. read more. What User doesn't like about Bull & Mouth Hotel:

We had high expectations and were really looking forward to having dinner at the Bull & Mouth because we'd been there before but after last night's dinner we'll be going elsewhere. I had the Salmon on the specials list, the salmon was fine but the beans were served crispy burnt black & the creamed cauliflower tasted fine until I got a mouth full of salt. My husband's meal was very disappointing also but the chips were... read more.
