Lin's garden is close by and I usually take away when I am lazy to cook. Portions are big, and food is tasty. It's the Asian restaurant in the area which people frequent and I am sure they have many regulars such as myself. I generally go for the fried rice, dried shredded beef. Order take away, and in less than 10 minutes, you'll be on your way. read more. What User doesn't like about Lin's Garden Chinese Restaurant:

completely inviolable behavior of the restaurant guide. he swore to my wife because he opened the door too late. he went away without giving us our change when I confronted him about my change that would have been his tip if he were not rude, he cried me in his mother tongue and went away. the prices were much more reasonable for the quality of food.
