The Menu of Figtree Gourmet Kitchen from FIGTREE contains about 30 different menus and drinks. On average, you pay for a dish / drink about A$28. The restaurant in Wollongong seems to be a popular local spot, loved by the community. The pizza and house special pizza are definite highlights, while the Veal Scallopine was a bit disappointing. Some patrons feel that the menu could use more trendy and vegan/vegetarian options, as well as more staff for better service during busy times. Despite some issues, the atmosphere is friendly and enjoyable for families, with good-sized meals and reasonable prices. The noise level can be a drawback for those seeking a quiet meal. Overall, the restaurant is recommended for its good food and friendly service, making it a great option for a family outing.
