Don't be fooled by appearance, this family owned and operated Italian restaurant has fantastic food with traditional influence. All I can say is wow! Each dish was better than described. Must try the figs with gorgonzola cheese sauce. The home made ricotta tart is also a must for those that like desert. Great value for money. read more. What Domenica Feil doesn't like about Da Franco Incontro:

We went there with the boys to try it for game one & two of state of origin. We had set menu for both games. The first game the food was great & lots of it the second game the food was less & not as good as the first time. I don't understand why they cant keep the consistence of the food. If they had we would of gone back again in the future. read more.
