Stopped here for lunch today and ordered the vegan lover toastie. It was delicious! Certainly not the most filling lunch I've had but definitely worth the $5.50. Also ordered a flat white. The coffee itself was great but could have been a little warmer. Was tepid at best. The music and general vibe of this place is what would call me back. Really cool atmosphere and very friendly staff. Would recommend :) read more. What Molly_K doesn't like about Ayla's Cafe:

Stopping in on our way to Melbourne, we were excited to find a vegetarian cafe. I ordered the avo toast with eggs, asked for lemon which they didn't have so got lime. The poached eggs were over cooked, and the toast was cold. My partner ordered the Ayla's breakfast roll, which was delicious. Coffee was bad. Wasn't creamy and the shot was kacky tasting. The service was nice so I'm sorry for this review. Maybe it will p... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in nice weather, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. The comprehensive variety of coffee and tea specialties greatly enhances the value of a visit to Ayla's Cafe, Additionally, they offer you authentic Australian dishes with products like bush tomatoes and finger limes. The restaurant provides a wide variety of fresh and scrumptious juices, here they serve a diverse brunch for breakfast.
