We have been regulars for some time now and have found that the standard of food and service has been maintained even though there have been staffing issues in many venues. This place sets the bar high for other pubs to follow read more. What Les B doesn't like about Seven Mile Inn:

our first visit for a year or so Major changes have been made as the previous owner seemed to have a hard time with this place. Glad to see Tassi still there even though I did not get a chance to speak to her as they were very busy. We will be back as this is an up and coming place but only one downer.....its very noisy now as they have removed the screens which cut down the noise read more. In beautiful weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. The comprehensive range of coffee and tea specialties makes a visit to Seven Mile Inn even more worthwhile, At the bar, you can relax with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. The pleasure of various sports events is also a big draw, when you are in this sports bar, Additionally, they serve you typical Australian menus with products like bush tomatoes and finger limes.
