I heard about the Brewbq from a friend of mine so committed to driving the 5.5 hours from Perth to the Chapman Valley! It was definitely worth it. The pulled pork sandwich was one of the best I've had, the chips were so tasty and don't even get me started on the ginger beer! This was all topped off by an incredible lemon meringue pie.

To say the staff were friendly is an understatement! I thoroughly enjoyed my time at... read more. What User doesn't like about Burnt Barrel Outback Brewbq:

If you are a fan of everything spicy then this is the place for you. Bit of an overkill as even the salads were loaded. Would love to have tried the homemade bread but that ran out. A man's heaven with all the meat and booze, Deserts were the crown in the evening meal though. Although the doughnuts a bit stoggy, and not a cream and jam to be seen :(Very picturesque location and lots of space for kids to run around, but... read more. In nice weather you can even be served in the outdoor area, And into the accessible spaces also come customers with wheelchairs or physical disabilities.
