It does look a bit rough on the outside, but the most wonderful gems look like a rock until checking out whats inside. There has not been one dish that is less than very good. If its busy then sit and wait. it will be worth your while. Its BYO and prices are so very fair. read more. What User doesn't like about Golden Star Kitchen:

We ordered a special fried rice, combination satay and honey chicken for takeaway. When we picked up the order the place was full of people dining, we thought we must have finally found some good Chinese food in Darwin... Unfortunately not. The fried rice lacked flavour, the honey chicken was soggy and the satay was the most bland and tasteless chinese dish we have ever had. Full of cabbage and Bok Choy, very little me...
