After travelling on the road all day we wanted something light and simple for dinner. Tokyo Train provided some terrific choices. We went with the teriyaki rice bowls, one topped with Wagyu beef and the other with salmon. The sauce, meat and vegetables flavored the rice to perfection. While waiting for those we were tempted to try a couple of sushi plates from the "train". All the food was nicely presented and delici... read more. What User

doesn't like about Tokyo Train:

Food service was crap. Staff who took my order put the wrong item on the Point of sale system. When I called to let them know they just said sorry and they can refuse the money and hang up the phone on me. Pretty low service. Really disappointed. read more. In nice weather you can even eat in the outdoor area, And into the accessible rooms also come customers with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. Experience in Tokyo Train from Darling Heights the diversity of delicious Chinese cuisine, authentically cooked in a wok, and easily digestible Japanese menus are being made with lots of freshly harvested vegetables, fish and meat. But the undisputed highlight of this restaurant is the tasty Sushi such as Maki and Te-Maki, and you may look forward to the tasty classic seafood cuisine.
