A girls weekend destination must with a great view over the Maritime Museum and water although the weather was horrible the night we visited. A wide selection on the menu. The food was very good including a blast from the past - ye olde seafood cocktail served in a fantastic plate with wide sides and a bowl in the middle. Just enough dressing coated the prawns, scallops and crab in the dish. The scallops and pasta sp... read more. What

User doesn't like about Pippies by the Bay:

Meals were well prepared good country servings. The temperature outside was 9oC and not any warmer inside. The log fire was not lit and the staff didn't know how to operate the air conditioner on other than cool. This is the reason for the lower score read more.
