Hopefully the resort gets redeveloped, as this restaurant is definitely the centerpiece. Not cheap, but the food is delicious, and the service is good. Considering the resort has shut down, the cleanliness of the restaurant and surrounds was a surprise. Will certainly be back. read more. What User doesn't like about Tsuruya Restaurant: Firstly, this restaurant is located in the abandoned Capricorn Bay Resort. The resort closed in 2016 and makes for a sad sight. Also, getting here at night poses its own challenges between the lack of street lighting, hard to spot signage and the many kangaroos about the place. Secondly, this place has the pretentiousness of fine dining but forgets that it left its heyday some years ago. The decor is tired and old.... read more. The restaurant and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and have something. For you, Tsuruya Restaurant from Yeppoon prepares fine sushi (e.g., Maki and Te-Maki), in many additional versions, with fresh ingredients like fish, vegetables and meat, and you may look forward to the fine typical seafood cuisine. The Asian fusion cuisine is likewise an important part of Tsuruya Restaurant. Anyone who finds the normal and generally known dishes too boring can here approach with a willingness to experiment and try some unexpected combination of ingredients enjoy, On the menu there are also several Asian menus.
