I live pretty far away from Northcote but had heard so much about this place made the trip. Did not disappoint. So much variety for gluten free and it was beautiful and fresh. I had a little of everything just so I could try...it. Service was fantastic. The only thing that could improve is maybe the seats a little uncomfortable- but the food makes up for it !!! read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat. What Bryon Mohr doesn't like about Sweet Salt:

I think we went to Sweet Salt after receiving a brochure in the letterbox. We dined alfresco, which really isn't a great experience in most parts of High Street. The food was, in our opinion, average suburban fish and chips and nothing more. With many equally good fish and chip shops closer to home, we wouldn't bother going back. If it was really local to us, there'd be no reason not to go there though. read more. A visit to Sweet Salt becomes even more rewarding due to the large variety of coffee and tea specialties, and you can look forward to the scrumptious traditional seafood cuisine.
