The Menu of Gekkazan from Melbourne contains about 37 different menus and drinks. On average, you pay for a dish / drink about A$13. What Mrs Maltman likes about Gekkazan:

Tucked away in GPO postal lane this little restaurant is perfect for a quick lunch. Good variety. Enjoyed the fresh hand rolls lovely that you can 'roll your own ' roll. Nice healthy lunch read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and be served. What Hallea doesn't like about Gekkazan:

Stopped for a quick lunch. Loved the alley which was previously part of the GPO. We were disappointed we stayed. Service was unfriendly to the point of being rude. The food was stodgy. Had to search for any beef in the waygu bento box, which was 50% rice. Wouldn't go back plenty of better places for Japanese. read more. With a large selection of fresh vegetables, fish and meat, the Gekkazan from Melbourne prepares easy-to-digest, fine Japanese menus, among the specialties of this establishment are especially the Maki and Te-Maki. It should not be forgotten that there is a comprehensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties in this restaurant, Besides, the inventive blend of different dishes with new and sometimes adventurous products is appreciated by the guests - a good case of Asian Fusion.
