The restaurant from Rosebery offers 93 different dishes and drinks on the menu at an average price of A$15.

What Christopher Simpson likes about Traditional Gyradiko:

The gyros here ticked all the boxes: tender pork, fluffy pita, tangy tzatziki, and fresh tomato and onion. You even get complimentary chips INSIDE the gyros. Generous servings and great value. This is the real deal! There are many other grilled and rotisserie dishes on...the menu. The frequent passing lunch trade seemed to agree on the high standard. read more. When the weather conditions is nice you can also be served outside, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What Julia Murray doesn't like about Traditional Gyradiko:

If you like raw meat, it might be a good place. Otherwise, I dont suggest for grill. We have ordered a mixed grilled plate meat balls and lamb grill was raw inside, we showed raw-inside lam grill and meat ball to chef/cook he just said..."sorry" with a considerable ignorance. Though, lamb gyro was average. read more. Traditional Gyradiko from Rosebery serves delectable, light digestible Mediterranean cuisine with its typical meals, and the customers of the establishment are thrilled with the Greek delicacies. Not to be left out is the comprehensive selection of coffee and tea specialties in this locale, Especially the fine juices are highly appreciated by the guests.
