What Julia Murray likes about Osaka Bar: a unique Omakase experience in Sydney. This restaurant has only space for 5 people so that the dining room and the atmosphere are very charming and intimate. We had a booking of 4 (2 pairs) and had the whole experience for us. They have the opportunity to keep...from 8 pieces of nigiri, up to 12 pieces and finally up to 16 pieces as they go. They also have a large selection of Japanese alcohol. The nigiri is absolutely top... read more. When the weather is good, you can also have something outside. And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What Santiago Klocko doesn't like about Osaka Bar:

This is really a second-rate place. I live in the area and dine out most evenings. Potts Point is full of great Japanese restaurants, but this place has the worst service. A cook (I'm sure he calls himself a chef) who is an absolute...bully. The food is dry, overcooked, but it does have the service to match dreadful with attitude. You have been warned YUCK read more. At Osaka Bar from Potts Point, fine sushi (e.g., nigiri and inside-out) is prepared for you, along with numerous other variations, always fresh with ingredients like fish, vegetables, and meat. The visitors of the restaurant also appreciate the large selection of various coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant has to offer. Fresh vegetables, fish, and meat are the main ingredients in the easily digestible Japanese cuisine of Osaka Bar. Besides, the inventive blend of different dishes with new and partially adventurous ingredients is appreciated by the customers - a beautiful case of Asian Fusion.
