The menu of Open Korea from Camperdown includes 101 dishes. On average, dishes or drinks on the card cost about A$19. The categories can be viewed on the menu below. What Eugenia Collins likes about Open Korea: I am travelling alone and requested the Korean (all you can eat I think) BBQ as the next table were in the middle of it and it looked amazing. I was pretty sure it would be for more than one and yes minimum 2 but waiter spoke to chef and I was allowed! Massive amount of food which I could not finish but wow, fabulous tastes and novel cooking at the table. You can buy wine next door to take in and water provided if re... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in nice weather. What Laron Hahn doesn't like about Open Korea: very unsafe, unreine environment. no bbq smoke exhaust gas. bibinbap was good, but others were unstoppable. I forgot some items we ordered and we had to remind them. read more. Fans of Korean cuisine are in the right place here: With Kimchi, the most different versions, preparations of Bibimbap, Bap, you will also find various, delightful Jjigae that please the palate, On the menu there are also several Asian dishes. The Asian fusion cuisine is also an important part of Open Korea. Anyone who finds the everyday and generally known meals too boring should approach with a willingness to experiment and try some unexpected combination of ingredients consume, The barbecue is freshly prepared here on an open flame.
