What Genoveva Bode likes about Kamel: Well it's been a bit of a awful week!! Nevertheless, rounded the week of with a couple of early door beers and decided to try and grab a table at Kamel for a bite to eat. It certainly made up for the bad week as it was fantastic. We sat in the back section of the restaurant which was lovely and cozy, the service was great and the food fantastic. You need to try the beef cheeks as they were simply brilliant!!!! Will d... What Winfield Quitzon doesn't like about Kamel: I enjoyed the lamb koftas, Fritters and the turkish bread, however, very disappointed with the hummus and beetroot dips as they were bland. I would not recommend the Tabbouleh salad either, as it had very little ingredients besides parsley and it was bland unfortunately. read more. At Kamel in Melbourne, there's a hearty brunch for breakfast where you can indulge enjoy, well digestible Mediterranean dishes are also available. For those who are still undecided, the smell of fresh flatbread and the fine, sticky delight of fresh baklava might be just the conviction they need - the Middle East is undoubtedly closer than one assumes, there are also delectable vegetarian meals on the menu.
