The restaurant from St Kilda offers 75 different menus and drinks on the menu at an average price of A$25. What Freida Auer likes about Araliya:

We had been Araliya fans in Hawthorn for many years. This was our first visit to the StKilda version. We were not disappointed - food was still great - if anything, some of the new menu items were even better than I had remembered. Fresh, tasty and a good choice of sides made this a lovely meal. The wine list is excellent and reasonably priced. We will be back! read more. When the weather is good you can also have something outside, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What Lempi Dietrich doesn't like about Araliya:

It was a very disappointing experience at this restaurant. Food is no where near authentic and lacks in flavour which is the signature for Sri Lankan cuisine. I would look elsewhere as Melbourne has a great range of Sri Lankan restaurants spread across the city and suburbs. read more. If you want to spoil your palate with a bit of culinary flair, this is the place to be: The successful Asian fusion cuisine of the Araliya from St Kilda - a delicious combination of proven and the unexpected, You can take a break at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. Customers also know to appreciate the use of typical Indian spices , on the menu there are also a lot of Asian meals.
