The restaurant from Sydney offers 195 different dishes and drinks on the card at an average A$23. What Donya J Norman Salman likes about Fortune Village Chinese:

Came for dinner with my very picky teen...chose this place because of the traditional Chinese dishes...my son is a big fan of sweet and sour chicken...and it didn't disappoint! I had the soup dumplings and they may be my favorite of all time...we also had the tamarind chicken which is the house specialty and it was amazing! We also had the honey prawns...everything was very very delicious...my favorite part was meeti... read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities. What Bogdana Toader doesn't like about Fortune Village Chinese:

Had an early dinner here alone. Ambience and menu good, staff engaging, but food mediocre and service poor. 10 minutes wait for second glass of wine, 30 minutes wait for the bill. I waited another 15 for someone to take my credit card and then left cash on the table and walked out. Disappointing.. read more. If you want to have a drink after work and hang out with friends, Fortune Village Chinese from Sydney is a good bar, Furthermore, the guests love the creative combination of different dishes with new and partially experimental ingredients - a nice example of successful Asian Fusion. Even the versatile, fine Chinese cuisine is very popular among visitors, and you can look forward to the scrumptious classic seafood cuisine.
