What Hazle Lubowitz likes about Brio Pyrmont: A pleasant surprise. I recently bought a voucher for 4 people we all enjoyed the meal immensely. The evening was off to a good start when the Red Wine included with the voucher was a Tasmanian Pinot Noir. We then sampled an array of delicious foods including Zucchini Fries, salt pepper calamari, Haloumi sweet potato salad Pork Belly. It was such an enjoyable experience that we booked again for next week. read more. The diner and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and have something. What Marlee Kutch doesn't like about Brio Pyrmont:

came in a group of five, had some sangria to share and chose five dishes that felt a good amount. favorite dish was the chorizo pizza, generously delicious zupferde and a good crust. gnocchi and the Quinoa salad were average and ok to miss one. I do not recommend the trufferies, because we could not taste the truffles at all we came due to dimmi and I would only return if there was another promotion. read more. Just eating and drinking is too simple for you? Then a visit to this sports bar is just right: in addition to large and small snacks and menus you can watch the latest football matches, tennis or Formula 1, Naturally, you should also taste the fine burgers, accompanied by sides like fries, salads, or wedges provided. The sweet and hot Spanish meals from the kitchen of the restaurant are also recommendable, Furthermore, the sugar-sweet treats of this restaurant sparkle not only on children's plates and in children's eyes.
