I've been to a few Japanese restaurants and none beats this little gem in Newtown Sydney. Authentic, creative, modern cuisine all fit the bill here. Amazing quality food prepared with love and attention to detail. It's a must try! I recommend popcorn prawn, sashimi tacos and golden dragon roll. The sauces are to die for!!! Check out the pictures! read more. As a visitor, you can use the WiFi of the restaurant free of charge, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. If the weather are right, you can also eat outside. What mrdom doesn't like about Japone Sushi (Newtown):

The train wasn't going at 1:20pm on a Saturday and the place was pretty empty...I'd just walked past Sushi Train up the road and they were packed so I don't what the problem was here. The upshot was that I had to order off the menu. You can order the train-sized serves of sushi, sashimi and basic rolls but the prices were higher than any other trains that I can think of. Fancy rolls were only sold as the whole thing... read more. tasty sushi (e.g., Maki and Te-Maki), as well as in many other variations, are prepared for you by Japone Sushi (Newtown) from Newtown, with fresh ingredients like fish, vegetables and meat, Besides, the successful blend of different dishes with new and partially adventurous ingredients is appreciated by the customers - a good case of Asian Fusion. The preparation of the menus is done typically Asian, and it's made with lots of fresh vegetables, fish and meat, healthy Japanese menus cooked.
