What Lillie Maggio likes about Ahgora: A personal favourite. Food is consistently amazing and the atmosphere is lovely. The haloumi ravioli is a must have - all the elements are well-balanced and the portions are perfect. read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and be served. What Winona Okuneva doesn't like about Ahgora: There is nothing hideously distasteful with Ahgora but the restaurant is one of the those which makes me wonder why I have dished out $50-$60 for a meal which You and I can easily cook at home. I tried the recommended ravioli and red cabbage salad. They taste exactly like what my grandmother will prepare during Easter - minus her love and passion. read more. A visit to Ahgora is particularly valuable due to the large diversity of coffee and tea specialties, At the bar, you can unwind with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. In addition, the restaurant offers Greek delicacies, like Gyros and Souvlaki with matching sides, Additionally, well digestible Mediterranean dishes are available.
