I was in Collaroy on business and I was feeling peckish. Across the road I spotted Mint Lebanese Cuisine. I looked at the menu on the board outside then looked inside the small restaurant. It was sparkling clean and tidy, so I went in. I ordered a Lebanese bread wrap with lamb and falafel. It was delicious, but so large that I wrapped up half and took it away with me to eat later. Great food! Great value! read more. In nice weather you can even have something in the outdoor area, And into the accessible rooms also come clientele with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What Shawn Friesen doesn't like about Mint Lebanese:

Was looking forward to eating Lebanese food. The tabouli was not fresh, I asked for some more from a fresher batch but was told it was fresh from that morning but I know from making my own it does not go soggy like that so quickly. Everything else was fine. read more. The large selection of coffee and tea specialties greatly enhances the value of a visit to Mint Lebanese, Additionally, easy digestible Mediterranean menus are available.

If you're still not sure, let the smell of freshly baked flatbread or the fine, sticky temptation of fresh baklava convince you - the Middle East is without a doubt closer than it appears, The fine sandwiches, small salads and other snacks can be planned well as a snack.
