The place from Chippendale offers 64 different dishes and drinks on the menu at an average A$14. What Cheyenne Senger likes about Lang Suan Central Park:

Unlike the other reviews below, I actually had a delicious, filling and reasonably priced Thai lunch at Lang Suan last week. We visited the outlet on a rainy tuesday and the food court in general was pretty empty given it was lunch time. The waitress at the counter suggested her favourite dish, Kra Pow Gai, which was minced chicken stir fry with chilli and basil, served with rice and a fried egg. The cost of the meal... If the weather conditions are right, you can also eat outside. What Tate Jakubowski doesn't like about Lang Suan Central Park:

Central Park shopping centre is a nice location to sit and relax on a Sunday. I was studying and cramming in last minute assessments. In need of a sugar fix, Koffie was right in front of us. The chocolate and almond slice was my pick alongside a cappuccino. Although it did give me a sugar fix. I found the chocolate to be underwhelming and the slice to be undercooked. It tasted like chocolate and cake dough, the cof... read more.
