The Card of Layup from Perth contains about 104 different menus and drinks. On average, you pay for a dish / drink about A$14. What Alberto Mertz likes about Layup:

Headed over to Lay Up for a change from my usual cafe. Had the scrambled eggs on toast. The portion was nice and big, and the eggs were done perfectly. 9/10!I also ordered a shake, which tasted good but was in a tiny glass, 7 bucks for a shake in a small glass was expensive. When i think shake, i think large glass and two straws! Nice setting on quiet Brisbane street, the staff are helpful and have very strange, twir... read more. The rooms in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, and there is no-charge WLAN. If the weather are right, you can also eat and drink outside. What Janelle Mills doesn't like about Layup:

the personal here is always friendly. the place is big and you can get a table with minimal waiting time that is great! was already often here when we live on the street and most of the things tried on their old menu and they are good, but nothing like wow. I tested the new menu yesterday and it was okay, although I noticed that the prices had risen? the only case, however, is the waiting period of the order. I would... read more. A visit to Layup is particularly valuable due to the comprehensive variety of coffee and tea specialties, Forbreakfast a versatile brunch is offered here. Look forward to the enjoyment of delicious vegetarian dishes, Particularly, the customers love the tasty juices.
