What Neil Dooley likes about Jalisco Mexican:

#Introduction Jalisco is a more traditional recipe mexican restaurant part of the Windsor side of Chapel street. It actually replaced a Taco Bill which was on this premises years ago. #TheyDoThisWell We were greeted as we entered and were seated quickly. There is...a wonderful happy atmosphere to the place. The food is prepared fresh and in a more traditional style than some of the more westernised Mexican restaurants we have in Melbourne. The staff went out of their way to fill our order before our movie (it can depend on what is ordered).

This place is licensed and has plenty of seating indoors, front, and also heaps out the back. The menu was impressive, easy to read and creative in its layout and options. The restaurant offers complimentary WLAN for its guests, And into the accessible spaces also come customers with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. If the weather are right, you can also be served outside. What Dameon Schmeler doesn't like about Jalisco Mexican:

Good cuisine, fast and very courteous service delivered in this small place. The menu was tempting so we took a sample of fajitas, burritos and guacamole. The whole selection was good but the portions are big: you won't easily finish an appetizer plus a main!...The rice was really average. Nice selection of beers for an overall good experience. Jalisco Mexican from Melbourne offers its guests fresh pastries and a selection of cold and hot beverages, and you have the opportunity to try scrumptious American meals like Burger or Barbecue. fresh fish, meat, as well as beans and rice are also South American grilled here, Many guests are especially looking forward to the diverse, fine Mexican cuisine.
