What HelenB likes about Fork and Fingers: Dinner at Fork and Fingers was a lovely night. From the warm welcome on our arrival, to our being seated, to the yummy complimentary snack, to the scrumptious food, to the great friendly service, it was just fantastic all round.

My elderly Mum was with us and she loved it too (and she can be pretty fussy, given the expert cook she is! . Thank you to you all. We look forward to coming back soon : read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in beautiful weather, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What JILLM doesn't like about Fork and Fingers:

Great food, specially the butter chicken which we all rated as the best we had ever tasted! As we were the only ones there, the atmosphere was pretty stark but it was near Christmas. Service was very friendly but a dish was forgotten which was a bit slack considering it was only a table of four in the whole place. Definitely would go again though. read more. Fork and Fingers from Melbourne is a good option for a bar if you want to have a cocktail after work and sit with friends or alone, tasty vegetarian menus are also on the menu available. The menus are prepared typically Asian, In addition, the charming desserts of the restaurant shine not only on children's plates or in the eyes of the little guests.
