What bill d likes about Portello Rosso: Portello Rosso Sensational Spanish Tapas and Paella This wonderful restaurant is slightly hidden in Warburton Lane so make certain you don't walk past. Also we were lucky to get in without a booking so don't miss out and call them first. We shared a squid ink sea food Paella as it had to be cooked for a minimum of two people and we were both delighted at the choice. Slightly noisy but that's not unusual when you eat... Food was delicious but had instances where waitress kept on disappearing when we wanted to order. When it came time to settle the bill, we were told that one paella hadn't been paid for despite each of the guests who ordered a paella recalling they paid. read more. Tasty pizza is baked hot from the oven at Portello Rosso in Melbourne using a traditional method. Here, the barbecue is freshly cooked on an open flame. Furthermore, there are easily digestible Mediterranean meals available, There's something for every palate and it's impossible to go wrong with the bite-sized Tapas.
