The place from Melbourne offers 104 different menus and drinks on the menu at an average A$11. What Michale Heathcote likes about Lost Angel Bar & Restaurant:

My husband and I eat here regularly, it is the best Thai food we have had in Melbourne. The menu is varied and the food fresh and amazing. The owners are friendly and welcoming, they really value their customers. We have taken our whole family for meals and they are able to accommodate small children through to adults. I have absolutely no hesitation in recommending Lost Angel as a great Thai restaurant. read more. The rooms in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat. WiFi is available for free. What Karianne Wisozk doesn't like about Lost Angel Bar & Restaurant:

If you want a tasty, cheap Thai meal in a casual bar setting, go to Lost Angel Restaurant on the corner of Spring St and Victoria St Melbourne. Great place to catch up with friends and work colleagues for drink and quick but filling meal. $4 a glass of wine during Happy Hour!! Good selection of beers. Outdoor drinking area and inside a casual dining room. Service was efficient. Hot food could be served hotter if plat... read more. With fine dishes, Lost Angel Bar & Restaurant from Melbourne delights, enriched with the popular spices and (fish-)sauces of the Thai cuisine and a bunch of fresh vegetables, seafood and meat, on the menu there are also a lot of Asian menus. After the meal (or during it), you have the opportunity to still relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, In addition, the latest games or races can be watched on the big screen in this sports bar, which the guests also love.
