What Jackie Cummerata likes about Bar Idda: We went on a Sunday evening and there were 4 of us. We sat on the ground floor at the front of the shop. Great atmosphere, not too noisy, friendly and informative staff. Food was so yummy!! We shared some antipasto, then enjoyed the slow cooked lamb, beef ragu, Sicilian sausages and a dish of calamari, prawns and grains. Vegetables and salad on the side. Cost around $370 for 4 of us, but in addition to entree and mai... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in pleasant weather. What Klaudia Woźniak doesn't like about Bar Idda:

On my first visit a year ago I loved this place. We had a good table downstairs, the atmosphere was warm and inviting and the food fantastic. That all changed on the second visit. The only space available was upstairs. This turned out to be...as grim as upstairs rooms usually are. A white room lit by two energy saving down lights that threw shadows everywhere and made people look grey and washed out. For goodness sak... read more. The comprehensive range of coffee and tea specialties makes a visit to Bar Idda even more worthwhile, and you can expect original Italian cuisine with classics like pizza and pasta. Following various sports events and competitions is equally one of the pluses of visiting this sports bar, The meat is freshly cooked here on an open flame.
