The Card of Gino's Italian Restaurant from Ascot contains about 107 different dishes and drinks. On average, you pay for a dish / drink about A$19. What Dorris Ferry likes about Gino's Italian Restaurant: We went here after a stopover through Brisbane, we were lucky enough they had one table left as we had no reservation. My husband said his pizza was the best he has had in a while. I had the Simon's special pasta (I think that's what it was called? It was chilli, pasta and prawns) and wow.....just delicious. I was misled about the portion size though when I asked how big the entree was compared to main size. I order... read more. When the weather conditions is pleasant you can also eat outside, And into the accessible rooms also come guests with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What Torrey McLaughlin doesn't like about Gino's Italian Restaurant: We had a voucher deal for Gino's & with that we thought we scored pretty well. The food is home style Italian nothing fancy about the plating & simple menu items. I ordered the eggplant parmigiana which was piping hot all the way through (unlike Lady Meatball in the review below!) It was flavorsome with lots of cheesy sauce & sweet, robust tomato sauce accompanied by a small salad. I ordered chillie... read more. At Gino's Italian Restaurant in Ascot, delicious pizza is baked fresh using a traditional method, there are also fine vegetarian meals in the menu. In addition, you can expect original Italian cuisine with delicious classics like pizza and pasta, and you may look forward to the delicious typical seafood cuisine.
